

MPG Bio- 2026

Mary Pender Greene, LCSW-R, CGP is a career and executive coach, organizational consultant, keynote speaker, and psychotherapist with a distinguished private practice. Recognized as an industry icon and an architect of cultural change, she is celebrated for her wisdom, innovative strategies, and lasting contributions to leadership, professional development, and organizational well-being.

As President & CEO of MPG Consulting, Mary helps organizations design cultures that prioritize health, wellness, and resilience. She equips leaders across industries with strategies to address burnout and the hidden costs of high-pressure careers, guiding them toward recovery, balance, and sustainable success. The MPGC team specializes in providing innovative and customized team building, leadership, and professional development tools for leaders at every level of an organization.

Mary's career includes senior leadership roles such as Assistant Executive Director and Chief of Social Work Services at the Jewish Board of Family and Children's Services, and President of the National Association of Social Workers, NYC. She is the author of Creative Mentorship and Career-Building Strategies: How to Build Your Virtual Personal Board of Directors and co-author of Strategies for Deconstructing Racism in the Health and Human Services. Her extensive writings on leadership, team building, and organizational culture continue to shape healthier, more resilient workplaces that honor both professional excellence and personal well-being.
